

2010 UU Youth Advisor Jump Start Series

Putting Unitarian Universalism into Youth Groups

Trainer: Samaya Oakley

Saturday, August 21, 9:00 am - 4:00 pm

Edmonds Unitarian Universalist Church, Edmonds, WA

This training will cover best practices on a review basis, and will focus on ideas for creating and maintaining UU Faith development as a foundation for youth programming. Teams of youth leaders and adult advisors are encouraged to attend.

Advanced Youth Advisor Training

Trainer: Dana Regan

Sunday, August 22, 9:00 am - 3:00 pm

Atkinson Memorial Church, Oregon City, OR

We will look at healthy boundaries for youth advisors today. How do you know what those are for each situation? What values do you use to create them for each situation? This workshop is recommended for youth advisors with at least one year of experience in the field.

Fee: $35.00 for each training

Sponsored by the Pacific Northwest District of the Unitarian Universalist Association

Trainer Samaya Oakley has been involved with the youth program at the North Shore Unitarian Church for 14 years. She is a Chrysalis trainer for the Youth office of the Unitarian Universalist Association and is a trainer for 4 of the 6 Our Whole Lives curricula. As Adult Dean of Goldmine Leadership School for Youth since 2005, she is passionate about instilling youth with a sense of our rich and varied history as Unitarian Universalists. Currently, she is involved regionally, nationally and continentally and has served in a variety of roles. As a Ministerial Candidate for ordination, she is busy studying at Vancouver School of Theology when she's not working with youth. Samaya has certificates in Business Administration and Life Skills Coaching.

Trainer Dana Regan has served as a religious educator for two congregations since 1983: Northlake Unitarian Universalist Church in Kirkland, Washington and First Unitarian Church of Portland in Oregon. At Northlake she served as Director of Children and Youth Religious Education and at First Church she currently serves as Director for Youth and Young Adult Religious Education. She served on the Board for the Liberal Religious Educators Association for Large Churches (LREDA LARGE) for three years including one as President. She also served as the LREDA Chapter President for the Pacific Northwest District for six years. In 2007 she received her Credentialed Religious Educator Certificate from the Unitarian Universalist Association.
